

I am opposed to the CBA's attempt to weaken Indiana's law concerning Telephone Privacy. My time at home and my disabled husband's time is no longer plagued with telemarketers calling for non-interesting items. If we need a product or service, we are more than able to contact a provider. Please do not force us to endure these calls.